Information on Coffee Hours

Fellow Parishioners... There has been some confusion as of late as to what we should expect from our Church sponsored Coffee Hours. We hope this clears any questions or confusion:

Regular Coffee Hour includes: cheese and crackers, grapes, pastry, coffee, milk, juice, and paper products

Memorial Coffee Hour includes: cheese and crackers, grapes, pastry, coffee, milk, juice, paper products, veggie platter and 150 pita--$100

If you would like to have Sandwiches ordered the cost is:

- 36 assorted finger sandwiches $45.00 (prices subject to change)
- 72 assorted finger sandwiches $90.00
- 108 assorted finger sandwiches $135.00... etc

Family and friends are welcome to bring any additional items. Please have items table ready with names on the plates if you would like them back. Also a quick reminder to be respectful of the sponsoring families and of those behind you in line. Lastly, children will be children and we love all of ours dearly however in today's world of health conscience we graciously ask you to watch that your child touch what they are going to take... and take what they touch.

Finally, we would like to extend a Huge Thanks to those who volunteer their time each week to service these Coffee Hours. If you volunteer to be on a team Please remember that you are agreeing to the following:

- Arrive at the church around 9:45 am to start setting up.
- If you cannot make it on your week or will be late you need to notify the captain or co-captain of the team in enough time to look for a replacement.
- Lastly, everyone should stay through clean up to make it as fast and swift as possible.

If you do not have a schedule there is a Master schedule in the kitchen you can check.

We are always looking for more help, if you don't Volunteer on a team and would like to please contact Tracy Terrio at 623-0847.

God Bless....The Anagennesis Ladies Board

THE APOSTOLIC READING

The reading is from the First Letter of St. Paul to Timothy (4.9-15).

Bring to the Lord, O sons of God, bring to the Lord honor and glory.

Timothy, my son, this saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

Command and teach these things. Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, attend to the public reading of scripture, to preaching, to teaching. Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophetic utterance when the elders laid their hands upon you. Practice these duties, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 31, 2016
THE GOSPEL READING: FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF LUKE

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke (19:1-10).

At that time, Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. And there was a man named Zacchaeus; he was chief tax collector, and rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not, on account of the crowd, because he was small of stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he made haste and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it they all murmured, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost."
