The Palms are donated in loving memory of Chris & Helen Korcoulis, Elias Korcoulis, and Paraskeve Korcoulis, from the Korcoulis Family.

A Vigil candle is being lit today by George G. Petrikas in loving memory of George and Anthoula Petrikas

A Vigil Candle will be lit every Friday in April for good health of Anastacia Ingils from Aphrodite Giotas.

Mirofori: We invite girls from ages 5 to 13 to be a mirofori girl in the evening service on Good Friday, April 29th. Please plan to arrive at 6:30 pm wearing an all white dress with shoulders covered, white tights or socks and white comfortable shoes. We will meet in the Sunday school 2nd grade room. The church will provide the girls with white gloves, a headpiece that's a comb and a white basket full of rose petals.

Please contact Athanasia Robinson at (603) 264-2968 or Veneta Tatakis (617) 851-7983 if you are interested.

Following the Divine Liturgy of the Resurrection, come, break the fast, and celebrate the Glorious Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour. The Board of Directors will provide roast lamb and liquid refreshments. Bring a dish to share and join your fellow parishioners in the celebration. All are welcome! Kali Anastasi!

GOYA News: Friday, April 29th, or Good Friday, Father Wilson has graciously invited GOYA to assist with the pre-service preparations, specifically with decorating the Epitaphio. We also plan on having a meeting afterwards in the annex with pizza. If you're available that day, it would be greatly appreciated.

NOA Scholarships Application: You can pick up applications at St. George Cathedral office. Please remember that they are due back no later than May 31, 2016. Please return completed applications to St. George Cathedral, 650 Hanover Street, Manchester NH 03104.

Saint George Children's Choir

Our Children's Choir has already begun learning songs, but it's not too late for you to join! We need you! We would like to see ALL children involved! All elementary and middle school students are encouraged to join!

The time commitment is so small (11:45-12:00 right after church) but the reward will be so great! Our church needs to grow its future congregation and this is a wonderful way to have children be involved and grow in devotion!

If you have any questions, please contact Kate Boisvert kateturgeon@yahoo.com

Thank you!

Daughters of Penelope Ilios Chapter

Will be sponsoring a Basket Raffle to benefit the Penelope Place Located in Brockton Massachusetts.

Raffles will take place on Palm Sunday April 24th, 2016 at St. Nicholas, The Assumption, and St. George Greek Orthodox churches of Manchester, NH

The proceeds will go directly to victims seeking shelter from Domestic Violence. It is a 24/7 center.

In addition to being a warm and welcoming home, Penelope's Place provides comprehensive, coordinated care for survivors of violence and their children. They offer innovative, creative, and collaborative solutions to assist families in improving their health and well-being, breaking the cycles of violence, and ensuring their future stability.

Penelope's Place shelter is a bright, warm, and inviting space for survivors and their children.

In addition to state funding, Penelope's Place is supported by many local organizations, churches, and generous individuals. One of the largest supporters is the Daughters of Penelope, a worldwide Greek women's philanthropic organization, after whom the shelter was named. With their support, we have transformed a shelter into a welcoming home and have provided help, hope, and opportunity to hundreds of families and children who were struggling with the devastating effects of domestic violence.

*Thank you for your generosity

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2016

APOSTOLIC READING

Blessed is the Messiah, who comes in the name of the Lord.
Give thanks unto the Lord. For he is good, and his mercy endures forever.

The reading is from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Philippians (4:4-9).

Brethren, rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

THE GOSPEL READING: PALM SUNDAY

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. John (12:1-18).

Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was to betray him), said "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, and let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young ass and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on an ass's colt!"

His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, and then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him. The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.
