I WAS JUST WONDERING

Recently, I was thinking about the state of our cathedral family and where we have been, where we are AND where we are going, especially during this month of the Transfiguration of our Lord.

I decided to review some of the articles I have put in the monthly newsletters. Wow! It reminded me of the fact that the articles were chosen, written or borrowed and placed in the monthly newsletter for one real reason or another. They usually spoke to issues that had arisen or problems we may have faced as a family.

The reality is that many of you enjoyed some of the articles. There were others who spent more time looking for typographical and grammatical errors than on the content. And to be honest, those of you who were looking for mistakes found them.

This really speaks to my overall concern about where we have been and definitely to my concern about where we are RIGHT NOW!

There was an article about a mother who went to a McDonalds and was really placed in a position to examine and put into practice her Christianity for the less fortunate. I had hoped it would encourage more of us to follow her example. Oh well.

Then there was the article about the “Cart Full of Mirrors” which spent some time examining our preoccupation with everyone else's human frailties, physical, spiritual and mental. It tried to encourage each of us to reflect on our own images before God and each other and our own personal weaknesses rather than those of the people we come in contact with on the street, in the workplace and, more specifically, here at church. But based on what I am seeing and feeling at this time, it appears that there was more time spent looking for typos and other errors than spending time reflecting on the content of the message. And that is where we were and actually where we are NOW, too.

We seem to spend most of our time talking about each other, pushing our own personal agendas, on each other's backs and at each other's throats, displaying anything but our Orthodox Christianity. We have truly lost sight of our purpose which is to grow in Christ. If we did this, we would be offering an opportunity for others to see how we “dwell in unity” of purpose and faith so they might see this and want to be part of the Christian family and more specifically, our Christian family. So this is where we are.

So where are we going? Well, based on our current mode of operation, we are on the fast track, the newly paved, four lane highway AWAY from God, headed somewhere other than HIS Kingdom.

First of all, “a house divided against itself cannot stand”. “Any country that divides itself into groups that fight each other will not last very long. Any town or family that divides itself into groups that fight each other will fall apart.”

So what should we do?

We could use the example of the monastic community that was dwindling in number and began to treat each other as the Messiah as we read in the article entitled, “What Is Community”.

That example didn't cause the monks to divide into two so their numbers would increase. But it did give visitors a positive view of the sense of Christian community and many were encouraged by that example to become part of that loving, Christ centered community.

Psalm 132 which is read during our Presanctified Liturgy during Great Lent includes this beautiful verse: “Behold, how good it is, and how pleasant, when brethren (brothers and sisters) dwell in unity.

I was just wondering what would happen here at Saint George Cathedral if we truly had a sense of community and would learn to “dwell in unity”.

I was just wondering. –Father Andrew

SUMMER THOUGHTS
President-Dee Boisvert

Speak when you are angry - and you’ll make the best speech you’ll ever regret.
Laurence J. Peter

When angry count to ten before you speak. If very angry, count to one hundred.
Thomas Jefferson

If you want others to be happy, practice compassion. If you want to be happy, practice compassion.
Dalai Lama

It isn’t what you have, or who you are, or where you are, or what you are doing that makes you happy or unhappy. It is what you think about.
Dale Carnegie

Your talent is God’s gift to you. What you do with it is your gift back to God.
Leo Buscaglia

Faith is different from proof; the latter is human, the former is a Gift from God.
Blaise Pascal

A hug is a great gift - one size fits all, and it’s easy to exchange. ~Author Unknown
God gave you a gift of 86,400 seconds today. Have you used one to say "thank you?" ~William A. Ward

You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give. ~Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet

What you don’t see with your eyes, don’t witness with your mouth. ~Jewish Proverb

Three may keep a secret, if two of them are dead. ~Benjamin Franklin, Poor Richard’s Almanac, July 1735

When you are in trouble, people who call to sympathize are really looking for the particulars. ~Edgar Watson Howe, Country Town Sayings, 1911

About Glendi

From its humble beginnings in 1980, St. George Greek Orthodox Cathedral’s annual Glendi celebration has grown into one of New England’s premier festivals, attracting more than 30,000 people each September.

National political figures, New Hampshire celebrities, and even local mascots can be found at the event each year as they enjoy in the state’s favorite community celebration.

Celebrate Greek culture and tradition with us and take part in our event this fall.

Favorite Food Festival/Event
Chairmen for this year’s Glendi have been selected and are currently seeking enthusiastic volunteers to contribute their talents and skills. This is the major fundraising event of our community and in order to succeed we must have each member of our community contribute. If we all give a few hours of our time over the weekend, it will truly be a community event. Maybe you can have the whole family volunteer and work together at a booth. Complete the form and you’re on your way to doing your part.

Thank you,
Dee Boisvert

Do You Have Lumber That's In Slumber?

The Cadillac committee is starting early this summer. We’d like to groove your wood into shape!

Special box lighting effects are being planned so we don’t have to rent them, also some props are on the drawing board.

Even though the Cadillac Banquet is in February and is six months away, we wanted you know our committee is not in slumber but instead gearing up for the best theme fund-raiser banquet on record.

If you have plywood boards that are at least 6' by 3' or would like to donate a whole sheet or recycle left over wood from your woodworking projects contact our church office. (approx. eight whole sheets)

Thanking you in advance, we’re most appreciative!

Have a great wonderful, safe summer !!!

Thank You:
The board would like to thank the ladies who help with fellowship during the year.

Community:
The Anagennesis Ladies Society has generously donated to many organizations this year. Among them are: The American Cancer Society, The American Red Cross, David’s House in Lebanon, NH, The Missions of OCMC, St. Michael’s Home for the Elderly, The Granite Pathways, and The Child Advocacy Center.

We also made the following purchases: a Scanner/Printer for our Cathedral office, many new tablecloths for our Community Center, new desks for our Sunday School, gifts for our members who are in nursing homes, and token gifts for our mothers and fathers in the community. We have also sponsored some of our board members in the Breast Cancer Walks. We have a very active board who is extremely motivated in working to better our community.

Glendi 2011: Cooking/Baking Schedule
Please feel free to offer your help in any way you can. Cooking dates are now listed for Glendi. We look forward to cooking with you, please feel free to join us anytime. We need YOUR help, and it is not just for ladies, the men are welcomed as well. Volunteers needed. Please come for a couple of hours or stay for the whole day, which ever you decide just know you are a vital part of our Glendi celebration. Cooking begins at 9:00 a.m. in the Community Center. Morning coffee and lunch will be provided.

It's hard to believe that one month of summer vacation has already passed!

Mark your calendars now so that you will remember that Sunday School will begin on September 25. That’s the week after Glendi for those of us who use “Glendi Time” to keep track of the seasons.

The September newsletter will include the Sunday School Calendar. Registration forms and parental volunteer sign-up forms will be mailed directly to the students. Additional forms will be available in the church office for new students. Some parents have already signed up to help out this coming year and I thank you for that. For those of you who haven’t made a commitment yet—it’s not too late. I’ll be looking for helpers for our various activities and also, classroom helpers. The work doesn’t pay much in dollars but the reward of working with our children is priceless!

Enjoy the last hurrah of summer because before we know it we’ll be back to school!

THE ODDS OF YOUR CHILD EXPERIENCING A CRISIS

As adults athletics are less important. Our children need spiritual tools to cope with life’s challenges so they don’t turn to unhealthy ones. Give your child the gift of spiritual skills by sending them to our Sunday School Program. Your future adults will appreciate it and so will you!
