It is very difficult for us, if not impossible, to have a relationship that is intimate and binding with an idea or a concept no matter how matter how noble it might be. God understood this when He revealed Himself to us as a person, and allowed us to see Him in the person of His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. By sending Him to earth in the form of mankind, our heavenly Father fully revealed Himself to us. Jesus is, as St. Paul wrote, God "in human form." (I Tim. 3:16).

Jesus Christ made this point clear when He said to Philip, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father." (Jn. 14:9). This is exactly what the good news of Christmas is--that God has shown us what He is like in the person of His Son, and has invited us to establish a personal relationship with Him. The tiny infant that Mary cradled in a Bethlehem manger was the "visible likeness" of our invisible God. (Col. 1:15).

As the day of Christmas approaches, let us be mindful of the words of the angel who told the shepherds, "This very day in David's town your Savior was born--Christ the Lord!" (Luke 2:11). As we prepare to celebrate this holy day, we must not forget who Christ is. Looking into the face of our Savior we can see and meet the holiness, the grace and the love of our eternal and heavenly Father.

But if this is to happen, we must abandon, if even for a short time, the mindless and consuming pursuit of our worldly goals and follow the example of the shepherds who "hurried off and found Mary and Joseph and saw the baby lying in the manger." (Lk. 2:16). And having come and met the child, they realized that they were gazing at God who came to this earth for our sake. That is why "the shepherds went back, singing praises to God for all they had heard and seen." (Luke 2:20).

Let us, therefore, resolve to make this Christmas the day in which we come to meet God in the person of Jesus Christ, and prove to ourselves that Jesus Christ is Immaneul, which means "God is with us." (Matt. 1:23). When the shepherds came, they discovered that "It had been just as the angels had told them." (Lk. 2:20). We owe it to ourselves to do no less.

Christ Is Born! Let Us Glorify Him!
+Father Andrew

We will be hosting the General Assembly Meeting at this time.

Fellow Parishioners:
As the New Year approaches, WE, on the Ladies Board, would like to thank you all for your support during the past year.

Our year began with the Vasilopita in January, followed by our general assembly. With the vote taken, it was decided that our next meeting would be held during our Holiday Party in December. Having the general assembly then, would certainly give us more members in attendance. The fundraiser of the Cash Calendar was so successful that we will be doing it again in January.

The continued efforts of the ladies doing the cleaning, decorating, and participating in the many activities of church during lent were much appreciated. The 3 Saturday of the Souls, the Red Eggs, the selling of the decorative Russian Wooden Eggs, the Palm Sunday dinner, the Flower decorating through out the cathedral were just a few of the many activities that were shared by so many. Thank you to all of those who helped.

Coffee hour ladies, and coffee hour cooks, were there through out the year to help make our fellowship hour so successful. Our ladies who chaired the many cooking days for Glendi were unbelievable and the ladies who joined in to help prepare all the wonderful pastries, and food, worked effortlessly. Again, Glendi was a success because of YOU.

The Christmas flowers, the visitations to the nursing homes with little gifts and remembrances for our members during the Easter season and during the Christmas season, the cleaning of the kitchen after Glendi, and this year, the very special organizational skills and effort of our ladies under the direction of Angela Dion, kept our supply room under control and organized.

We are keeping with the vision of the Anagennesis Ladies Society and enjoying it. Donations to the many charities, sponsoring a seminar to go to school, and the new Chandelier that will be coming soon for the narthex, are also a part of our group. We enjoy all that we do, and I especially want to thank you all for making my first year as President so fantastic. I am so happy that we continue serve our Orthodox community and the community at large, reaching out to those in need with financial, emotional and spiritual support.

Merry Christmas and a very Happy and healthy New Year to you all.

Thank you again,

Cathy Moufarge Boisvert

On November 17, the Helping Hands Stitchers gathered the projects they have been working on all year to ready it for donations. This is the third year the Stitchers have worked on projects to help keep those less fortunate warm through the cold winter months. We were delighted that the amount of handwork produced this year exceeded previous years. It was decided that the recipients this year would be Liberty House, which helps veterans in need, and the Salvation Army.

We are still looking for people to help us with handmade mittens, hats, and scarves. Items may be knitted or crocheted, or you may sew fleece items for donation. We meet in the Annex every third Thursday evening from 7-9 pm. If you prefer to work on the items at home, you may drop them off or send them in to us. If anyone has yarn (worsted weight or bulky weight) we could use it. Drop it off at the church office with a note for the Helping Hands Stitchers. If you have some great hat, mitten, or scarf directions, send us a copy. If you would like to learn to knit or crochet to help us out with our projects, just drop in to see us at any of our meetings. We love to have new people. Please bring your own materials and we would be glad to show you how to begin.
The children are excitedly preparing for our annual Christmas Pageant which will be presented on December 18 immediately following the Divine Liturgy. I hope that many of you will be able to join us on this special day. It is an opportunity for the children to reenact the story of Christ’s birth and to learn traditional Christmas carols—things that are not taught in public schools any more and an opportunity for them to give back to our community—their gift to you.

Given the difficult economic times we are all dealing with perhaps this would be an excellent time to teach/remind our children that Christmas is more about giving than receiving. Certainly, toys and goodies under the tree make for a happy moment when they are opened and initially played with or used but what about the memories we could be making? Time costs nothing in dollars and cents (outside of the workplace) but means the world to us when we look back at how we have spent or squandered it. Time with loved ones cooking or baking cookies, time with loved ones listening to stories, time with loved ones singing Christmas carols, time with loved ones worshipping as a family in church are opportunities to make lasting memories in young minds. Let’s spend our time doing something meaningful this holiday season.

On behalf of the Sunday School staff and children I would like to wish all of you a Blessed and Holy Christmas. May the New Year find you blessed with good health, happiness, and love.
