PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

As my time winds down as Interim President of the Board of Directors here at St. George Greek Orthodox Cathedral I did want to express my gratitude to all the parishioners of this community for your commitment to our church, our faith, our culture and our heritage. As you know I stepped into this role due to George Copadis’ increased work obligations in Concord. For me, serving as President of the Board is an honor that I will always cherish. Regarding our ongoing issues I have attempted, to my very best ability, to find resolution. I think ALL of us need to keep in mind what we inherited here from our grandparents and parents and how hard each of them worked to build and maintain our community. Ultimately we do a disservice to all of their memories unless we find resolution. I ask each of you to search inside your hearts mindful of all that the previous generations have done and find common ground to settle these differences so we can once again be a community. This is my final letter as President and my final request of ALL parishioners.

The month of April includes the following:

On Sunday March 31st Father Andrew will swear in the 2013 Board of Directors during the service in the church at the altar. Immediately after the service I will convene the new board and conduct the election of officers for the Board of Directors for 2013. The new board will attend the coffee hour after the election of officers and I will depart as President of the board. Again my deepest thanks to each of you for ALL that you do on behalf of our beloved community.

Lastly, I would like to extend my congratulations to the 5th and 6th grade boys and 7th and 8th grade boys basketball teams for winning both the city and state championship titles in their respective divisions.

Sincerely Yours,

Dick Anagnost

FATHER ANDREW’S MESSAGE
RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

I recently had a heart-rending conversation with a wonderful young person who, outwardly at least, seemed to have a fulfilling life. During our chat, however, I sensed that everything was not going as well with him/her as outward appearance indicated. With very little prompting, he/she readily confided that he/she had been deeply depressed over a number of years, and that on several occasions had even entertained the possibility of suicide.

This person came from a caring family, and enjoyed numerous friendships, but none of the people in this person’s life had sensed the deep distress and unhappiness. It was not that they didn’t care; quite the opposite was true. Rather it was that life had somehow become so hectic that there was little time for meaningful conversation and deep personal sharing. Distracted by the mundane, they had neglected what was truly important.

We can be sure that we also come in contact every day with many people who are carrying heavy burdens, facing trying situations, or worrying about the future. Oftentimes, they can unknowingly be the very people closest to us. They need and long for a kind word, a sympathetic ear, and a warm smile that reflects a caring heart.

When this young person began to experience the encouragement and hope that flows with Christ-like love from loved ones, their life turned around, and thus began the long process of healing. For this reason, we all need to be attentive and focused not only on our own needs, but on those of others, so that we can offer encouragement to people who are hurting. We need to have our lives and relationships reflect the admonition of St. Paul who wrote “you are the people of God . . . so you must clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, gentleness and patience. And to all these qualities add love, which binds all things together in perfect unity.” (Col. 3:12-14).

During this Great and Holy Lent, and everyday, if you come upon someone without a smile, resolve to give him/her one of yours.

Father Andrew

NOTE: CHOIR PRACTICE INFORMATION ON BACK OF CALENDAR
Hi everyone, it is that time of year again when everyone enjoys all the special hymns that the choir sings for Lent and for Easter. I invite you all to join us as we learn all these new hymns and review all the old ones. I ask that if you would like to sing with us, that you attend at least two rehearsals before HOLY WEEK. It is truly important to have you at least go over some of the hymns before singing. It makes for a difficult time if those that do not attend, sing, not knowing the hymns, along with those who have learned them. I have made a schedule out making it convenient for all.

Tuesday, March 26, 3-4 pm
Tuesday, April 2, 3-4 pm
Tuesday, April 9, 6-7 pm
Tuesday, April 16 6-7 pm
Thursday, April 18 3-4 pm & 6-8 pm
Tuesday, April 23, 6-8 pm

We will be singing each Friday night for the Salutations. Report time is 6:45 pm.

We will also be singing Holy Tuesday, report time 6:45pm, Good Friday, report time 6:45 pm, and Holy Saturday, report time 11:30 pm.

How great would it be to see our choir area filled? Please join us and share your gift of song with everyone as we begin to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. If you have any questions, please call me at 603-669-4165, or 603-867-3323.

This invitation is extended to those that were in the Junior Choir as well.
