FATHER ANDREW'S MESSAGE

DO YOU KNOW ME?

I do not have any respect for justice. I injure badly without killing. I break hearts, destroy friendships, sow anger and reap hatred. I am cunning and malicious and unlike others, I get stronger with age. The more I am repeated and quoted, the more that I am believed. I distort reality, subvert the truth, ignore the facts, resist correction. I enjoy the suffering of others, and spread confusion. I flourish at every level of society, and can easily be found among rich or poor, ignorant or educated.

My victims are helpless and too numerous to be counted. They cannot protect themselves against me, and they never know who I am--I do not have a face or name. To track me down is almost impossible, because the harder you try, the more elusive I become.

I am nobody's friend. Once I tarnish a reputation, it is never quite the same. The nobler the person, the more persistent is my attack. I embellish the truth as well as the lie. I have wrecked marriages and toppled governments. I have ruined careers and undermined noble causes. I cause sleepless nights, heartaches, and untold grief. Because of me, innocents cry. I make headlines, and respect no one.

I am called gossip.

The next time you are about to repeat a story about someone, remember this--Great minds discuss ideas. Average minds discuss events. Small minds discuss other people. The next time you are about to make someone the object of your discussion, it is important that you ask yourself these questions: Is what I am about to say, true? How do I know that it is true? Is it necessary for me to repeat my story? Will I achieve some positive good by doing so? Finally, is what I am about to say, kind? If it is not, why am I repeating it? What is my true motive in doing so?

If it is untrue, or unnecessary or unkind, please, please, don't say it!

(This article is from an old Monthly Bulletin from the Saint Vasilios Church in Peabody, MA. I preached it on Sunday, August 11, 2013 and several people had asked for a copy.)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

August was a busy month and September promises to be even busier!

Congratulations to Kelly McKnight and Athanasia Robinson for organizing our Summer Church Camp this year. Our Goyans served as counselors—good job! A special thanks to all of the parents and parishioners who were involved in making this experience a great one for our children! It was heart-warming to watch our children interacting, singing, learning and sharing. Parents helped out in so many different ways and then took time to interact with each other. You know you have a success on your hands when the children ask for a second week next year!! Fr. Andrew frequently says in his sermons that people should know we are Christians by our actions. If anyone had observed our camp there would have been no doubt in their minds—these are Christians. Kai to chrono!

Fr. Alex Chetsas and the Stewardship Committee from St. Philip's in Nashua took time out of their busy schedules to meet with our Stewardship Committee. They shared their knowledge with us and gave us some really good ideas to implement. This cannot be a committee of two or three people. We are going to need a strong committee to reach out to parishioners so that we can tap into the time, talents and treasures that each person can bring forth to strengthen our parish.

Fr. Andrew and I had an opportunity to meet with His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios and Diocese Chancellor Fr. Theodore Barbas. We discussed many of the issues facing our parish at this time. Our Spiritual Father was distressed to learn of the turmoil within our parish but pleased to hear that the Attorney General's Office had completed their investigation and put the matter to rest.

Our Youth Ministry Team will spring into action right after Glendi. Sunday School, GOYA, HOPE/JOY, Little Lambs, and Scouts are ready to spring into action! I hope that all of our children will become involved in our programs.

Glendi cooking is in full swing. Men and women have been giving up summer time at the beach and have been hard at work in the kitchen preparing food to be served at Glendi. The crews show up without being prodded and work expertly getting the job done efficiently and quickly. Some of us completely missed koulourakia baking because three days were allotted and it took just one day to complete them! That's some serious cookie twisting! Bravo sas!

Speaking of Glendi . . . have you signed up to work during Glendi weekend? You don't need to be here all three days—God bless those who come and stay for the entire weekend—but we could use your time and talents working in shifts. There is a sign-up sheet included in this newsletter. Please don't wait to be called! Many hands make the work light!

Sincerely,

Nikki Moutsioulis
President, Board of Directors

Girl Scouts

At this time, we are working on starting the Girl Scout program (Daisies, Brownies, Juniors and Seniors) at St. George. There will be more details to follow, we are looking at a starting date in October for this program.

THANK YOU!

We would like to personally thank everyone from the bottom of our hearts for the nice coffee hour the Church had for us as a farewell. It was such a nice event and we enjoyed talking with everyone and getting to say goodbye. It was a hard day as everyone knows how much the Church means to our family. We tried to be very involved in the Community and we will miss everyone and will cherish our memories of the St. George Community. We hope the Church has a successful Glendi. We will miss it and we hope you all enjoy the event.

CUB & GIRL SCOUTS

Greetings St. George Community!

Cub Scouts

As we start our second year, Pack 92 is still rolling strong. We started a year ago in October with 5 scouts, and as of today, we are up to 22. The Scouting year kicks off with our first official Pack meeting of the new Scouting year on Wednesday, September 11th at 6PM. Our meetings will continue weekly throughout the year. We will continue to provide the best possible program that we can for our Scouts, including Camporees, advancement, and as always, cheerful service to our community! Be sure to check the weekly church bulletin for specifics on our meeting dates and times.

We will have an official "Membership Night" on September 25th where we will showcase our Pack and work to grow our Pack even more. If you are interested in having your son join our Pack, please be sure to contact me via email or cell phone.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Mark your calendars-the first day of Sunday School is September 29! Children will assemble in church at 10 AM and sit in the pews by class. The children will proceed to the classrooms after Father Andrew's lesson.

Children who are three years old and toilet trained are eligible to participate in our Nursery School program. Sunday School runs through grade 10. I encourage all children of our parish to actively participate in Sunday School.

You will be receiving registration forms and a calendar in a separate mailing. Also, registration forms are available in the church office. Please complete a separate form for each child.

If you are interested in volunteering in Sunday School, please let me know. We are looking for a new teacher(s) for the second grade. In addition, we could always use more substitute teachers and co-teachers. If you have any questions or concerns regarding Sunday School, please see me so that we can discuss them.

I want to thank the entire Sunday School staff, Father Andrew and President Nikki Moutsioulis for their hard work and dedication. They are making my transition from teacher to Sunday School Supervisor seamless.

Many of you are getting back into a routine with school, homework, dance lessons, music lessons and sports. I want to remind all of the families to make Sunday School part of their normal routine. As a mother of two young children, I know how hard it is to balance all the activities in our own lives and our children's lives. Not everyone will make it to church or Sunday School every Sunday. I understand this, however we all need to make a strong commitment to come to church as much as we can. We need to set a good example for our children. Sunday School is an opportunity for our children to learn about Jesus Christ and the Orthodox Church.

I look forward to seeing many familiar faces and a lot of new faces in church!

Sincerely,
Athena Moutsioulis Bevan

Many GOYA members volunteered at the Vacation Church Camp during the week of July 29th to August 2nd. There was a great turnout and it was a lot of fun for everyone involved.

Future Plans:

When Sunday School starts, GOYA will begin the year as well by having a meeting to discuss events, and elect a new Vice President to take the place of our former Vice President; Katina Smith.

We will all miss Katina very much, and wish her and her family the best of luck in Florida.
