THE DIVINE LITURGY IS CELEBRATED 'ON BEHALF OF ALL'

As we celebrate the Divine Liturgy together, we see figures of saints through iconography and we smell the sweet fragrance of incense as the smoke rises with our prayers into the heavens. We hear the sounds of Byzantine hymns, written by the fathers of the Orthodox Church many centuries ago. The hymns, sung by the priest, chanters and the choir of the church, are full of beautiful meaning. Then we see a priest who wears several layers of clothing called vestments. These separate him from the world, for in his hands he holds the mysteries of God's kingdom.

As we come to attend this service, we first will light a candle before being seated. This initial act of lighting a candle proclaims faith that Christ is the light of the world because He enlightens our souls and guides our lives.

The word "liturgy" means common action or common work. The Divine Liturgy is the common work of the Orthodox Church. This means that the Divine Liturgy is something that we do all together, priest and people. Due to its common character, the Divine Liturgy cannot be celebrated privately by the clergy alone. It may never be served only for some and not for others because the Divine Liturgy is always "on behalf of all and for all." In fact, if only the clergy are present for the service and no one else attends, then it cannot be celebrated and subsequently the Divine Liturgy cannot take place.

The Divine Liturgy is the action of the church assembled by God in order to be together in one community to worship, to pray, to sing and to hear God's word and to be instructed in His commandments.

It is always done on Sundays, the Lord's Day, which is symbolic of the first day of creation. It is also celebrated on many week days, on important feast days throughout the ecclesiastical year.

The Divine Liturgy features one of God's greatest Sacraments, the Holy Eucharist. From the earliest times, this Sacrament was designated by the term "Eucharist," which means thanksgiving. The priest consecrates and blesses these elements under the appearance of holy bread and wine, and through the descent of the Holy Spirit, they become Christ's actual body and blood that are later distributed to the faithful through the chalice.

The change of the holy bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ is not a physical experience but a mystical one. It is a sacrament instituted by Christ, who said, "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him" (John 6:56). The Divine Liturgy is not just a remembrance but a present reality. The liturgy bridges the gap between what Christ did 2,000 years ago and today. As the priest recites "Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you for the forgiveness of sins," Christ is the host and we are his guests.

Through the Divine Liturgy, the Last Supper is not only a banquet that took place 2,000 years ago for 12 special people. It is our banquet today because we are all invited. This same banquet, this same feast, is available to us every Sunday morning and at every feast day through the Divine Liturgy.

The Divine Liturgy is divided into two parts, the liturgy of the word and the liturgy of the faithful. The liturgy of the word occurs during the service, highlighted by the readings of the Epistle and the Gospel. The liturgy of the faithful features the distribution of Holy Communion.

There are several processions throughout the service. These movements are representative of God moving toward man and man moving toward God. One of the most impressive processions is the Great Entrance in which the priest carries the gifts of bread and wine around the church and places them on the holy table to be consecrated. This procession reminds us of Christ who was on his way to suffer on the cross for our sins, as well as Christ himself entering the sanctuary with all of us to stand before God's throne.

In the Divine Liturgy we will pray together for peace, for the healing of the sick, for the needy, for one another, for our leaders and for our armed forces, for those who travel by land, sea, and air. We pray for the needs of all. We pray for all things.

Please come and witness this beautiful and moving service. We look forward to seeing you at the next Divine Liturgy.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

I want to begin by saying thank you to all the wonderful Sunday School teachers who wrapped up another successful year of dedication to our young people. The teaching of the faith is the most important mission any of us can undertake, and we have some very dedicated women and a few good men who give up their Sunday to help impart what we believe as Orthodox Christians to the next generation. It is not easy to show up week after week to volunteer their time, you're a little tired, have a cold coming on, there's a couple inches of snow, prepare a lesson, handle problems that are always there, take the trip back and forth to communion, keeping track of everyone. Remember these are people of faith, people who do not hear the choir, or the inspirational sermon, who do not get to attend the Divine Liturgy they love. They are over in the center with someone else's children and grandchildren. They are the very best of the community and really show us all the example of service and love in action week after week. THANK YOU.

As the school year winds down it's the official start of the big push, the preparations, the meetings, the lining up of the volunteers, the buying, baking and wrapping. YES you know I'm talking about the greatest festival this side of Boston, THE GLENDI, our GLENDI yours and mine, the single largest fundraiser we do, the one thing we do together, all of us not some of us. People are older some are starting to tire, wearing down, take up the cause be part of your community. We need you, want you; have to have you it's the GLENDI. Do not say no one asked I'm the president and Frank is asking, tell you friends and family each and every one. Where are you working? What are you doing to help? What group are you joining for the cooking, baking? Which booth are you going to be stationed at? Have you sold an ad for our program, taken an ad yourself, or in memory of, possibly sent in $25.00 to be listed as a sponsor? Every bit helps it's the GLENDI all hands on deck for the big one. St. George & GLENDI attached at the hip, intertwined for all to see. Once again we will host thousands of visitors, let's show the city, the state, our wonderful sponsors, the candidates from all over the country with their widespread coverage no one does it like we do, the GLENDI it's coming, be part of the solution, help make the 2015 GLENDI the one they will always remember. It is our chance to shine, to pick up our inheritance and run with it, we have a legacy but this is our time to perform, it's our GLENDI all of us working together for the community we love.....GLENDI let the good times roll.

Thank you to all who helped with the St. George Name Day Dance last week, we need to continue to support these events creating the feeling of community that is so important to past on to our youth. Please continue to fulfill your Stewardship pledge to St. George it is vital to our health and future. If not you then who, share the blessings you have gotten with the community that help raise you.

I would be remiss if I did not remember the passing of two of our truly outstanding members, this past month, members of that greatest generation who overcame the want and scarcity of the depression only to see their beloved country thrown into the world war. Men who built businesses and grew families and who never forgot their church their faith and their community. Gentlemen in the truest meaning of the word General John Blatsos and Archon John Gikas may their memory be eternal. Let their example inspire us all to the hard work needed so that we may pass on to next generation a healthy, vibrant community that our Lord will continue to bless and we can be remembered for our love of God, and each other.

Have a safe, happy summer and come by with your family to worship with your St. George family we're open.

Frank C. Comerford, President

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Christian Stewardship is a life style, which acknowledges accountability and responsibility before God. Becoming a Steward begins when we say we believe in God, to whom we give our love, our loyalty, and our trust. We affirm that every aspect of our lives comes as a gift from Him. Stewards are motivated as recipients of God's abundant love, to respond by participating and supporting His plan of Salvation and the ministries of the Church, which makes Salvation possible for themselves and for others.

Thank you to all who have generously pledged and contributed to the Saint George Cathedral 2015 Christian Stewardship Campaign. If you have not yet submitted your stewardship pledge for 2015, or have not yet completed your stewardship pledge, we ask that you please do so as soon as possible. Your Stewardship provides the foundation for our Parish Ministries and supports our efforts in meeting the challenges of spreading Christ's Love, Christ's Word, and our Orthodox Faith in greater Manchester and in the world.

GLENDI

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

As GLENDI 2015 fast approaches, we wanted to reach out to you and ask for your financial support for this year's premier Manchester event. As you know HIPPO PRESS named the GLENDI Festival best Festival in Manchester and our crowds at each and every GLENDI exceed our wildest expectations.

With all that said our needs for your support of our ad book are great. The ad book started in 1997 and continues to bring additional revenues that we are dependent on in order to meet the financial needs of many youth, adult, and senior programs here at St. George Cathedral.

We ask that you contribute according to your means. Our ad prices have not gone up and continue to remain at the following levels:

Patron Page	$25.00
Quarter Page	$75.00
Half Page	$150.00
Full Page	$300.00

We were able to bump the deadline date out to June 30th as our pace of commitments for ads seem a little slower than in past years. We ask once again that you give according to your means. The success of our GLENDI year after year is due to the commitment of all our parishioners who show the true meaning of what the word team means.

We hope we can count on your support as we proudly put on display for all to see the best of the very best here at St. George Cathedral.

We need your help. We need your help today.

Thank you for your continued support as well as your consideration of our request.

URGENT NEED FOR FOOD

The demand for food assistance is at an all time high and food bank supplies are at a record low. Help is needed to fill their shelves and ensure that some of the poorest residents of our community receive food. The greatest needs are: peanut butter, jelly, tuna fish, canned vegetables, canned fruit, cereal, pasta, and sauce. Please drop your items off at the Community Center and we will deliver them to the soup kitchen. New Horizons and the recipients of the food are very grateful for your generous donations.

LAITY AWARD

MARIA A. DONGAS

Inspired by the example of her parents, Sophia and the late Vassilios Dongas, Maria is a life-long member of St. George Greek Orthodox Cathedral, where she has selflessly served, giving of her time and talent to her beloved church.

As a child, she attended Sunday School, Greek School, Jr. Choir and GOYA. While in High School Maria began teaching Sunday School and has been doing so for over 25 years. Upon graduation from college, Maria became the GOYA advisor offering assistance and guidance for our youth. She organized activities such as retreats, excursions into Boston for a play or a tour of Hellenic College, and overnight trips to New York and Montreal.

During this time she was an active participant of the Merrimack Valley Youth Commission and the Boston Diocese Youth Ministry Team.

Maria served as a Camp Counselor at the Boston Diocese Camp which was held in Poland Springs, ME. She also ventured to California to participate at St. Sophia Camp in San Bernardino, CA. She was instrumental in bringing the Boston Diocese Winter Camp to Manchester and worked closely with the Board of Directors and Camp Director Fr. Ted Barbas to coordinate that effort for several years.

She was honored to have been named to the Blue Ribbon Committee by His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios, to search for a permanent home for the Camp Ministry.

In 1993, Maria, along with her parents, received the St. George Laity Award.

Elected to the Board of Directors which she served for 15 years, Maria held the offices of Vice President, Secretary and Personnel Chair. She has planned and organized many events including the New Year's Eve 2001 Dance to kick off the Cathedral's 100th Anniversary Celebration.

Maria is a trustee of the St. George Maintenance Fund, which provides funding for the larger maintenance repairs of our Community.

She has worked at the annual Glendi since its inception and currently chairs the Gyro Booth with her family and friends. On occasion she can be seen singing in the Sr. Choir when Sunday School is not in session.

Maria is a Past President and Past District Governor of the Daughters of Penelope. She is an active member of Ilios Chapter #51. She has held many offices at the Chapter and District levels. She has been awarded the Chapter Penelope of the Year Award. She was also awarded the District's Pericles Award for her dedication to the AHEPA family.

On too many occasions in today's world the youth that have participated in church life during their younger years have now become adults and unfortunately for one reason or another no longer participate and volunteer on behalf of the church. In many cases the legacy and the light that existed through the parents and the church extinguishes and does not continue with the children that have now become adults. In Maria's case she has continued the legacy of service to the church as taught to her by her parents and that legacy and that light continues to shine for all to see.

The Community of St. George Cathedral through the Board of Directors takes great pride in presenting Maria Dongas for this year's Laity Award. Her legacy of commitment to church life as set forth at St. George Cathedral through her parents continues through the inspirational work on behalf of our community and all our parishioners.

Everywhere in Greece you can see men and women playing the beloved game of Tavli. The Greeks have taken this board game to heart and made it their own. Tavli is played mostly for fun and sometimes for a cup of greek coffee or a frappe, ouzo and of course, for money. Join us in playing this national board game of Greece. Na to thymounte oi palaioi kai na to mathenoun oi neoi (for the old to remember and for the young to learn). Come join us for the first ever TAVLI tournament at the TRANSFIGURATION GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH in Lowell Ma.
