A NATIONAL SHRINE FOR EVERYONE

On September 11, 2001, the thousands who senselessly perished in the terrorist attacks of that day were only the first and most grievous losses to our Nation. In the confused and stormy dark days that followed, even as we all gained some small measure of comfort from the extraordinary courage of our Fire and Police heroes, our national sense of security, safety, and even our some sense of identity in the wider world was deeply and perhaps forever shattered. In those days when our Archbishop, His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America, ventured to Ground Zero offering prayer and solace to the survivors and rescue workers, the vanished Saint Nicholas Church was already beginning to speak up. There began in the hearts and minds of those sifting through the debris an utterance crying from that sacred ground unto the Lord on behalf of the blood of many brothers and sisters (cf. Genesis 4:10). And that cry became a story and a history – a story of those who were slain that fateful day, and a history yet to be written of the immigrant communities of lower Manhattan and their dream of America.

That is why the Encyclical of the Holy Eparchial Synod of our Church in America is so compelling. As the Hierarchs state: “The new Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church at Ground Zero will be much more than a rebuilt parish. It will be a National Shrine of our Holy Archdiocese and a place of pilgrimage for our Nation and the whole world”.

This recognition, this raising of the consciousness of every member of our Greek Orthodox Archdiocese to the value and significance of the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center is just the beginning. Saint Nicholas will be the only House of Worship in the entire sixteen-acre rebuilt World Trade Center site.

Hence the Holy Eparchial Synod, under the presidency of Archbishop Demetrios of America, is calling for the entire national Church to become stakeholders in the new Saint Nicholas at the World Trade Center. In order for this edifice to truly be the National Shrine it is called to be, it must be a National Shrine for everyone. Orthodox and non-Orthodox. Christian and non-Christian. Believer and non-believer.

This does not mean that as an Orthodox House of Worship, it will look or feel any different from any other Naos. In fact, the inspirations of the architect are Hagia Sophia, the Church of the Savior in Chora, and the very Walls of Constantinople! The interior of the finished Naos will be instantly identifiable as an Orthodox Church with all the accoutrement, furnishings and, of course, plentiful iconography. Saint Nicholas will function as any other parish with a rich liturgical life centered around the transfiguring cycles of feasts and fasts that define every year of the grace of the Lord.

But as transfiguring as the liturgy is for the community that worships and understands what it is saying (cf. Acts 8:30, 31), there is a transformative role for Saint Nicholas to play for the Nation and indeed the world, as the Hierarchs have said.

In a place where the ashes of mourning still fall into the landscape of memory, we are called to bring glory, in fulfillment of the words of the Prophet (Isaiah 61:3). And this is no self-glorification, but a real sense of the transforming, glorious love of God. This a profound responsibility to be shared by every member of our Holy Archdiocese: to uphold the re-building and ministry of the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center by prayer, by fasting, by feasting, by material support, by sharing resources, by donations, by telling the story from every housetop (cf. Luke 12:3), and writing a new history of human interaction and Divine love.

This is precisely why housed within the Saint Nicholas National Shrine will be a room of special purpose, a place of quiet non-sectarian reflection and meditation. And this is no concession to diversity – by no means! It is the exact opposite. It is the acceptance and even celebration of diversity. It is the witness to the triumph of our Nation’s values of freedom of conscience and mutual respect for all religious expression that does not violate the freedom of others. And is this not precisely what the terrorists of 9/11 did their worst against? Did they not rob our fellow citizens and fellow human beings of their most basic freedom – the freedom to live, by their horrific and madness-fueled murders? Our answer to such negative, hate-filled nihilism must be the affirmation of life, liberty and the pursuit of true happiness.
That is why the Saint Nicholas National Shrine will rise in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty. That is why we will welcome all visitors who come in peace and with the mutuality of respect that every human being deserves. That is why the Golden Rule will be emblazoned for all to see: “So whatever you wish that men would do to you, do so to them; for this is the Law and the Prophets” (Matthew 7:12). Truly, such a National Shrine is worthy of a nation-wide effort and campaign. The Holy Eparchial Synod, under the leadership of Archbishop Demetrios of America, is calling on the entirety of our Archdiocese to take up this noble and indeed glorious cause.

There is no other group of citizens who have this opportunity. No other religious body that has such an obligation, such a duty to all other members of its society. The challenge is ours, and ours alone. The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America has been given this solemn charge and this sacred task. We are all called to give our finest and our best to this holy work of the Church. If all free human beings are citizens of Messolonghi, how much more are we all members of Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center! Let us all – each and every one – heed the call of our spiritual fathers, and join this journey of faith.

On Sunday, December 6, 2015, the Feast Day of Saint Nicholas, we will be passing a second basket at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy, for the benefit of the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. We humbly ask that you be generous in your giving that day. If you are not going to be in Church on December 6 please make your offering by check made payable to Saint George Cathedral and marked Saint Nicholas Fund. Saint George will remit one check from the community to the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. We thank you in advance for your generous spirit in giving towards this national institution of our Church here in the Americas.

May the light of that bright star which illumined the skies over Bethlehem some two thousand years ago, allowing the world to see the humble birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, guide your every step toward Salvation. May God bless you and your family at this holy time of the year with good health and much happiness. Merry Christmas and every good blessing for the New Year.

With Paternal Love in Our Incarnate Lord,

Very Rev. Father Agathonikos M. Wilson (Father Mike)

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

I hope all of our wonderful Glendi workers enjoyed the Appreciation Dinner on the 19th, a fun time was had by all, and a final thank you to all our sponsors/partners in this giant effort. We had a record breaking festival and I was proud to be a part of it with all of you. Frankly we needed that kind of result to keep going on a firm footing, things at your community do not just happen they take team work, coordination and resources. We need your participation; we need help with the programs in all areas that benefits all of us. Some can only contribute with a financial commitment which leads me into the letter going out this week on Stewardship, being a member of your community.

Stewardship is the life blood of our future we need your time and the talents you bring to the table and we also need to increase the membership with both new and the revived activation of old members. This Stewardship letter is going out to those who have not made a contribution for the last two years, why not? Are you part of the community YES or NO? It costs money to maintain your name on the roll, to send you this mailing, to allow your children and grandchildren to be part of the many youth activities. We need a positive step on your part, show us you care enough to belong to your church once again. The contribution we all make to the health of our community is vital to having the programs the activities we all want, the many things we all need for our spiritual wellbeing. Please, I urge you if you get a letter, read the letter and be part of the solution, join the church again. Call your adult children, bring the subject up at Thanksgiving dinner, and join your church.

I hope you were able to be a part of the teaching Divine Liturgy that Fr. Mike just completed. I know I learned something with the explanations of exactly what he was doing and why. The Divine Liturgy is the core of our faith and anything that helps us get a deeper understanding can only benefit your life and your journey. I am sure we will have it again in the future so we can all develop a richer appreciation of our faith. Coming to church is the first step, please try and make that step. Which we all do when we come to church and participate in the activities of your community.

I am writing this letter before the results of the Board election is known, but what I do know is that a fond farewell is in order for three departing Directors for the service they have done for their community. Phil Blatsos our treasurer has served us all with his understanding of the law and finance. We cannot thank him enough for straightening out the often times convoluted sources of our income, and our many expenses. I know I have benefited from his explanations in layman terms how our funding happens and what is needed to keep things straight and moving forward in a positive direction. Greg Timbas who has served for many years as our go to guy whenever anything needs fixing, he knows the boilers and the maintenance of our properties. He did the renovation of the parish house prior to Fr. Mike’s arrival. I’m sure we will be calling him with questions. He took the bids to fix a problem when he did not just fix it himself which happened a lot, a real asset to his community. Ted Setas whose job commitments are forcing him to remove himself from the board while he continues to head up the basketball program that benefits so many of our youth. He always had a reasoned calm approach to the issues facing us. These men know what the job of a director means, its service and work for the church you love. I know the new Directors will do their best, but we really owe a thank you to Phil, Greg and Ted for their service, thanks guys it was a pleasure serving with you.

There is one last thing. On December 6th we will be doing an extra collection for St. Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. If you are unable to come to church, you can mail in a check and make it out to St. George Cathedral and put in the memo St. Nicholas National Shrine.

I want to wish each and every one a blessed, safe Christmas season and a Happy New Year. Join with me in a prayer for our St. George community for the love we all share for our church, for the less fortunate in our city and most of all for our country in these troubled times. May God bless you and your family.

CHOIR BOOKS

The choir is looking for choir books that belonged to former members who do not sing any longer or who have passed away. It would be greatly appreciated if you could return them to the church office as soon as possible. Thanks, Cathy

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Christian Stewardship is a lifestyle, which acknowledges accountability and responsibility before God. Becoming a Steward begins when we say we believe in God, to whom we give our love, loyalty, and trust. We affirm that every aspect of our lives comes as a gift from Him. Stewards are motivated as recipients of God’s abundant love, to respond by participating and supporting His plan of Salvation and the ministries of His Church, which makes Salvation possible for them and for others.

Thank you to those Stewards who have generously contributed to our 2015 Christian Stewardship Campaign. If you have not yet submitted your stewardship pledge for 2015, or have not yet completed your stewardship pledge, we ask that you please do so before December 31, 2015.

The 2016 Christian Stewardship Appeal package will be mailed to you soon. Your Stewardship provides the foundation for our Parish Ministries and supports our efforts in meeting the challenges of spreading Christ’s Word and our Orthodox Faith.

The Church understands the economic difficulties that many are facing and suggests or actually encourages giving on a monthly or a weekly basis if it makes giving easier. The Church is an extension of our own home. It is the place that cultivates strong families, values, faith and friendships. And our Church truly needs our strong Stewardship support. Thank you so much! We are very grateful for your kindness and your generosity.

SMALL PARAKLESIS SERVICE

On the first and the third Wednesday of each month the Orthodox Life Class will be preceded by the Small Paraklesis Service beginning at 6:00 p.m. During this service we ask the Virgin Mary to intercede for us, to pray for us to her Son, to help us to overcome our illnesses, and to assist us in times of trouble and/or in times of need. We do this because the Church feels that since she is so close to God that she will assist us in our prayers to Him. The service is about an hour in length.

FAMILY BOWLING
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 27
From the beginning of Father Mike’s ministry he has had a long running tradition of taking the parish children bowling on the Sunday between Christmas and New Year. The tradition will continue here at Saint George.

On Sunday, December 27, 2015, Father will be taking our youth and interested parents to Lakeside Lanes at 2171 Candia Road for an afternoon of bowling and pizza. We will meet there at 1:00 p.m. Father pays for the bowling and you are responsible for the shoe rental. We’ll all pitch in for the pizza and cold drinks.

In order that the bowling alley knows how many lanes to reserve for us, we need to give them a rough idea of how many people will be coming that day. Therefore, please let Father know that you are coming on or before December 20, 2015.

SECOND BASKET TO BE PASSED
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6
At the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, December 6, 2015 there will be a second basket passed for the benefit of the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. If you will not be in church this day, please make your check payable to Saint George Cathedral and write Saint Nicholas Fund in the memo line. The Cathedral will remit one check from our community to the Saint Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE A CHURCH READER?
Any adult or older teenager in the community who is interested in reading the Epistle at the Divine Liturgy please contact Father Mike directly.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
Dear St. George Community,
I want to thank everyone who attended the Harvest Pancake Breakfast last month! It means a lot to me to see so many people supporting our Sunday School program and supporting our kids.

Join us on December 13
for our annual Christmas pageant!
We have something new and exciting planned for this year!

This month all the students will be participating in Advent workshops and learning about Christmas through hands-on learning activities. The theme of the workshops is “Seeking our Savior: An Advent Detective Story.” I am very excited to introduce this new program to our Sunday School.

I want to wish you and your family a Merry Christmas!

WHERE IS BETHLEHEM?

Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea. Where is Bethlehem? Did the Son of God come to be born in a tiny hamlet in a far-away place in Palestine? Or was He born there that He might come to be born somewhere far closer?

If Christmas is the time that God chose to come close to us, then Bethlehem must also be somewhere very close to us. Where is Bethlehem?

It is not very far away from us at all. Bethlehem is your heart and my heart. This is where Jesus came to be born. This is where He wants to be born. This is where He wants to live to bring us new life, the very life of God. If Christ, a thousand times in Bethlehem to be born and not in your heart and in my heart, then we have missed the whole meaning of Christmas.

Where is Bethlehem?

“Behold I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come to him and sup with him” (Revelations 3:20). There is Bethlehem.

“I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing” (John 15:5). There is Bethlehem.

“He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him” (John 6:56). There is Bethlehem.

It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me,” said Saint Paul for whom Bethlehem was within.

“Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and He their God” (Revelations 21:30). There is Bethlehem.

Invite the Lord Jesus to come and sit on the throne of your heart as King, and Bethlehem will be within you. And when it is, then the peace and the joy of Christmas will be with you all year long. “And you shall call His name Emmanuel, which means God is with us”. God truly is with us, God truly is in us. This is where Bethlehem is.

CALLED TO BE SAINTS . . . .

SAINT NICHOLAS
THE WONDERWORKER
ARCHBISHOP OF MYRA
DECEMBER 6

Saint Nicholas lived during the reign of Saint Constantine the Great, and reposed in 330. As a young man, he desired to espouse the solitary life. He made a pilgrimage to the holy city Jerusalem, where he found a place to withdraw to devote himself to prayer. It was made known to him, however, that this was not the will of God for him, but that he should return to his homeland to be a cause of salvation for many. He returned to Myra, and was ordained as a bishop of the Church. He became known for his abundant mercy, providing for the poor and needy, and delivering those who had been unjustly accused. No less was he known for his zeal for the truth. He was present at the First Ecumenical Council of the 318 Fathers at Nicaea in 325; upon hearing the blasphemies that Arius brazenly uttered against the Son of God, Saint Nicholas struck him on the face. Since the canons of the Church forbid the clergy to strike any man at all, his fellow bishops were in perplexity what disciplinary action was to be taken against this hierarch whom all revered. In the night our Lord Jesus Christ and our Lady Theotokos appeared to certain of the bishops, informing them that no action was to be taken against this hierarch whom all revered. In the night our Lord Jesus Christ and our Lady Theotokos appeared to certain of the bishops, informing them that no action was to be taken against him, since he had acted not out of passion, but extreme love and piety. The Dismissal Hymn for holy hierarchs, “The truth of things hath revealed thee to thy flock” was written originally for Saint Nicholas. He is the Patron Saint of all travelers, and of sea-farers in particular; he is one of the best known and best loved Saints of all time.
WHAT IS THE SERVICE OF ROYAL HOURS IN THE CHURCH?

The Service of Royal Hours is a particularly solemn celebration of the Little Hours in the Eastern Orthodox Church and in the Eastern Catholic Church. The Service of Royal Hours are celebrated only three times a year as a preparation of the Great Feasts of the Church; Christmas, Epiphany, and Pascha.

This service takes its name from the fact that it used to be officially attended by the Emperor and his court at Hagia Sophia in Constantinople. Because of the presence of the Emperor, there was a special singing of “Many Years” to the Emperor, the Imperial Court, and the Hierarchy. This singing of “Many Years” continues to this day (in modified form) in Cathedrals and in Monasteries. By his presence, the Emperor acknowledged his submission to Christ the True King.

The three holy days on which the Royal Hours are celebrated were chosen as days in the church year which most particularly demonstrate Jesus’ kenosis (self-emptying), and thus His true royal majesty.

Although the Royal Hours are beautiful and splendid, they are also penitential. On days when the Royal Hours are celebrated it is not permitted to celebrate the Divine Liturgy. The Royal Hours is an aggregate of five services, all served together as one: the First Hour, the Third Hour, the Sixth Hour, the Ninth Hour, and the Typica.

At each of the Hours, one of the three fixed Psalms is replaced by a Psalm that is significant to the Feast being celebrated; the Troparion and Kontakion of the day are replaced by numerous chanted hymns; and each Hour has an Old Testament reading, a Prokeimenon, and an Epistle and a Gospel.

The Feast of Pentecost was a fourth time during the year when the Service of Royal Hours was celebrated in the early Church, however this service has not come to wide usage in the Church.

Each Hour commemorates a special event. First Hour (6:00 a.m.), thanksgiving for the new day and prayers to maintain a sinless day. Third Hour (9:00 a.m.), the descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. Sixth Hour (12:00 noon), the hour at which Christ was nailed to the Cross. Ninth Hour (3:00 p.m.), the death of Christ on the Holy Cross.

We will be celebrating the Service of Royal Hours for the Nativity of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Thursday, December 24, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. Please come and join us for this beautiful and very moving service.
