GOD'S LOVE THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Lord said, "If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." Herein lies the key to understanding the fifty days, beginning on Pascha. Then Christ died, and arose from the dead. Now those who believe in Him receive the Holy Spirit – not just His Apostles, but also the entire Church.

On Pentecost we understand that the Holy Spirit transforms belief into faith. Like someone starving for food, in danger of dying, we are given spiritual food by the Holy Spirit, and we have been given life which never ends. This spiritual food takes many forms: Scripture, prayer, repentance, and especially Holy Communion. To eat spiritual food implies that we live spiritually, but what does that mean? Saint Paul writes, "For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth." (Ephesians 5:9) Elsewhere he says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance..." (Galatians 5:22-23) To live spiritually, to be a spiritual person, is to live like that.

In the end, to live by the Spirit means one thing: to live a life consumed by the law of love. Jesus said, "This is my commandment; that ye love one another, as I have loved you." (John 15:12) To love one another is not a commandment in the ordinary sense of the word. Love cannot be manufactured, nor can we grit our teeth and love one another, nor by sheer effort can we love God. Love proceeds from a heart softened by God and enlivened by the Holy Spirit. Such love is strengthened by our loving deeds. Love has no desire to receive, only to give. In giving this holy love we amazingly receive everything our hearts could ever hope to have, so blessed do we become. Yet this world, so far away from God, has no understanding of a spiritual love, because this love belongs to the Kingdom that God is making ready for His faithful ones.

We began the journey to Pentecost one hundred days ago, at the beginning of Great and Holy Lent. The journey does not end today. Pentecost is an image of eternal life, of a life with God that never ends. Our journey finds its goal in the world to come. Those who enter that world will be those who live by the law of love, and whose joy is life in the Spirit of God. There, in that Kingdom, God's elect will forever drink of the cup of salvation, and enjoy the bread of eternal life, and from them will, indeed, flow rivers of living water.

What is this great spirit that so moved our lives? What is this that brings us to the light? What is this, but love we cannot comprehend and tenderness we cannot understand? It is the true love of God, something we all share, something we all receive from God.

The true love of God is the flow of His Divine Grace, healing every soul that believes in Him. It flows eternally, because "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son." We must never fear that we are lost, because we are not alone. God is greater than all our fears. He knows His plan at hand. We are His children. God loves us and we in turn love Him in spite of seeming disappointments in our life.

God may not respond at once. He may not grant what we ask. Nevertheless, somehow and somewhere the Lord does answer every prayer of faith. Whatever the response, we must learn to say, "Thy will be done." To see the true love of God, we must first have love in our hearts. Hence, let us love one another as God truly loves us.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Christos Anesti, what a wonderful way to begin my letter, the long Lenten period is over along with the once a year services of our Orthodox Holy Week. It is mysterious, rewarding, exhilarating all at the same time and I hope you were able to participate in many of the services. I do know many of your fellow parishioners were here as both attendance and collections were up from past years. I cannot thank our wonderful Dean Father Michael enough for his dedication and thoughtfulness to all of us in this most busy time.

May is perhaps our busiest Month and I for one am glad it is over, things went very well without any major or even minor mishaps. The OPA dance thanks John Stavropoulos and your working group, our Mother's day coffee thanks to my board of directors, the Ladies evening dinner thanks to Poppy Tsoutsas and her dedicated group of women & men, even the General Assembly thanks for coming out to learn about your community.

The Sunday school year finished with the graduation and awards a sincere thank you to Athena Bevan and her team of teachers devoted to God's work in helping our children know him, learn of his love for all of us and that the way to have a good, productive, happy Christ centered life is only thru him and his church, our church. Thanks to the parents who see the importance of getting the children here and if you read this and you're not bringing your own young people why not talk to Athena, talk to Father, heck talk to me it's that important for them and for our future. The future is only possible with his help, we as individuals and as a community of Christian people need to just ask him to continue to bless us as he has for over a hundred years. If there is a next hundred it is these children who must lead us so pray for them and the dedicated teachers who are starting them on their life journey. The promise is real and now that I am older I see more truth in it every day that to lead a good life starts in knowing him thanks to all the Sunday School team at St. George for helping our children achieve their own reward of a life with our Lord and Savior, yes Christos Anesti truly the only way to go no matter your age.

June has some eventful things too, on a personal side my anniversary #43, my birthday #69 but more importantly back to the community the annual Scholarship Sunday on the 5th and the Greek school graduation here at St. George on the 12th, Father's Day on the 19th, please check the individual flyers in this mailings along with the dates of the St George church camp in July another wonderful week for our young people why not check it out you will not be disappointed.

We had the 1st GLENDI meeting and why not think of joining up with the most hard working, dedicated group at the Cathedral, The GLENDI is only a success with your work to make it a success please join us. Why not begin by thinking about taking an ad in the book, join with other family members to remember loved ones or promote your business maybe just to say hello or thank you. It's your book and has become a vital part of the festival please help make it a winner once again. GLENDI only a hundred days away and counting be part of it.

I know Father Mike has promised me we will be open all summer so please come to church, bring the whole family thank our Lord for being an important part of your life, be safe and have a wonderful summer.

See you at Divine Liturgy...

Frank C. Comerford
President

PASCHAL HOMILY OF ST. GREGORY THE THEOLOGIAN

Almost everyone is familiar with Saint John Chrysostom's Paschal homily which is read during the Divine Liturgy of the Resurrection on Pascha. Saint Gregory the Theologian had also written a beautiful Paschal homily which most likely many are probably not familiar with. For forty days we had been tested in the "Lenten desert", praying: "Enable us....to emerge victorious over sin and, without reproach, to come to the worship of Your Holy Resurrection." THE VICTORY IS ONE!! CHRIST IS RISEN!! TRULY HE IS RISEN!! "Yesterday I was crucified with Christ; Today I am glorified with Him. Yesterday I died with Him; Today I am made alive with Him. Yesterday I was buried with Him; Today I am raised with Him. Let us become like Christ, since Christ became like us. Let us become divine for His sake, since for us He became man. He assumed the worse, that He might give us the better. He became poor, that by His poverty we might become rich. He accepted the form of a servant, that we might win back our freedom. He came down, that we might be lifted up. He was tempted, that through Him we might conquer. He was dishonored, that He might glorify us. He died, that He might save us. He ascended, that He might draw to Himself us, Who lie prostrate, having fallen into sin. Let us give all, offer all, to Him who gave Himself, A ransom and reconciliation for us."

ASSUMPTION GREEK SCHOOL GRADUATION

Will be at St. George Cathedral on Sunday, June 12th. The parents will be sponsoring the Coffee hour on that day. Congratulations to all graduates for a great year.

GRADUATING SENIOR'S

Please submit the names and addresses of all students who will be graduating from high school this June to the Cathedral office at 622-9113. We would like to invite them to participate in Scholarship Sunday on June 5th at St. George Greek Orthodox Cathedral.

To all the girls that I loved before, now I love you even more. Thank you for helping me with the Mother's Day Party. Without you I couldn't have done it. We collected $1445.00. We served 96 dinners plus three guests. Father Wilson thank you for your prayers, Joyce and Danny for everything you do. All proceeds left over after expenses went to St. George Cathedral.

Penny your Diples were a big hit, and to all the girls that helped which included: Elaine Argiras, Penny Arfanakis, Toula Barber, Cynthia Bisson, Vasoulla Demos, Cindy Gatzoulis, Olga Gatzoulis, Aphrodite Giotas, Elaine Grimanis, Teddy Karagiannis, Stamatia Malatras, Linda Martin, Bessie Melas, Roula Mitsopoulos, Sharon Mitsopoulos, Chrysanthé Nagios, Elaine Pervanas, and Ginny Tsirimokos.

Poppy

P.S. A very big thank you to the Board of Directors for offering your help. We love you.

CALLED TO BE SAINTS . . . .

BARTHOLOMEW THE HOLY APOSTLE JUNE 11

Saint Bartholomew was one of the Twelve Apostles, and had Galilee as his homeland; this is all that is known of him for certain according to the history of the Gospels. Concerning his apostolic work, certain say that he preached in Arabia and Persia, and especially in India, bringing to them the Gospel written by Saint Matthew, which had been written originally in Hebrew, and which was found there one hundred years later by Pantaenus, formerly a stoic philosopher and later an illustrious teacher of the Christian school in Alexandria (see Eusebius, Eccl. Hist., 5: 10). Other accounts say that he went to Armenia. According to some, he ended his life by being crucified, or by being flayed alive, in Albanopolis (Urbanopolis) of Armenia. This also confirms an ancient tradition preserved by the Armenians. According to some, Bartholomew and Nathanael are the same person, because the Evangelists who mention Bartholomew do not mention Nathanael; and John, who alone mentions Nathanael as one of the Twelve, says nothing of Bartholomew. Indeed, Bartholomew is a patronymic, "son of Talmai," which means "bold, spirited" (see also Jesus of Navi 15:14; II Kings 3:3), and Nathanael could have had this as a surname. According to the Synaxarion of the Menaion on April 22, however, it is Simon the Zealot and Nathanael who are the same; the Evangelists who mention Simon the Zealot (or "the Canaanite") do not mention Nathanael.

THE FEAST OF THE ASCENSION: THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2016

The Feast of the Ascension commemorates the ascending of Jesus Christ into Heaven witnessed by His Apostles. It took place on the Mount of Olives on the fortieth day after the Resurrection. It marks the triumphant close of the post-Resurrection period during which Christ repeatedly appeared to His Disciples and spoke to them of "the things concerning the Kingdom of God". Thus, Christ's human nature was taken into Heaven, wherefrom "He now exercises all power in Heaven and on earth". The Ascension is one of the principal feasts of the Christian year irrespective of denominations. The feast day falls on the sixth Thursday after the day of PASCHA. The Feast of the Ascension will be celebrated on Thursday, June 9, 2016 with the Divine Liturgy beginning at 10:00 a.m.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST: SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 2016

This is the fiftieth day after the Resurrection of Jesus Christ when the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles. The Church applied the name "Pentekoste", the fiftieth day, to the feast celebrating this event which may be considered the birthday of Christianity as an organized religion. In the days of antiquity, the whole period between PASCHA and the Sunday marking the fiftieth day after it was called Pentecost. During that time, no fast was allowed, prayer was offered by standing, and the alleluia was sung more frequently. Today, however, it is only the week between PASCHA and the Sunday of Saint Thomas, also known as Bright Week, where there is no fasting allowed. This year we will celebrate the Feast of Pentecost on Sunday, June 19, 2016. The day is very holy and no memorial services or Sacraments are allowed. On the Saturday before the Feast of Pentecost we traditionally celebrate the Saturday of the Souls with the Divine Liturgy and Memorial Service. Some consider Pentecost to be the Orthodox Memorial Day.
