PASCHA – THE FEAST OF ALL FEASTS

About two weeks from now we will celebrate the Feast of all Feasts, the Great and Holy Pascha, the Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Our long journey to this most joyous celebration actually began on Sunday, February 5, the beginning of the Triodion, a time of preparation for our Great Lenten journey. I would like to share with you a brief explanation of the last days of our Lord's earthly life, the days leading up to this Great and Holy Feast.

Great Lent and Holy Week are two separate fasts, and two separate celebrations. Great Lent ends on Friday of the fifth week (the day before Lazarus Saturday). Holy Week begins at sundown on Palm Sunday evening. The Saturday of Lazarus and Palm Sunday are two very special days, neither part of Great Lent nor of Holy Week, just very special days unto themselves, celebrated in joyous anticipation of Christ's own Resurrection in about a week.

Lazarus Saturday: Lazarus Saturday commemorates the raising of our Lord's friend Lazarus, who had been in the tomb four days. This act confirmed the universal resurrection from the dead that all of us will experience at our Lord's Second Coming. This miracle led many to faith, but it also led to the chief priests and Pharisees' decision to kill Jesus (John 11:47-57).

Palm Sunday (The Entrance of our Lord into Jerusalem): Our Lord enters Jerusalem and is proclaimed king - but in an earthly sense, as many people of His time were seeking a political Messiah. Our Lord is King, of course, but of a different type - the eternal King prophesied by Zechariah the Prophet. We use palms on this day to show that we too accept Jesus as the true King and Messiah of the Jews, Who we are willing to follow - even to the cross.

Holy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday: The first thing that must be said about these services, and most of the other services of Holy Week, is that they are "sung" in anticipation. Each service is rotated ahead twelve hours. The evening service, therefore, is actually the service of the next morning, while the morning services of Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday are actually the services of the coming evening.

Understanding that, let's turn to the Services of Holy Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (celebrated Palm Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evening). The services of these days are known as the Bridegroom or Nymphios Services. At the first service of Palm Sunday evening, the priest carries the icon of Christ the Bridegroom in procession, and we sing the "Hymn of the Bridegroom." We behold Christ as the Bridegroom of the Church, bearing the marks of His suffering, yet preparing a marriage Feast for us in God's Kingdom.

Each of these Bridegroom services has a particular theme. On Holy Monday, the Blessed Joseph, the son of Jacob the Patriarch, is commemorated. Joseph is often seen as a Type of Christ. Joseph was betrayed by his brothers, thrown into a pit, and sold into slavery by them. In the same way, our Lord was rejected, betrayed by His own, and sold into the slavery of death. The Gospel reading for the day is about the barren fig tree, which Christ cursed and withered because it bore no fruit. The fig tree is a parable of those who have heard God's word, but who fail to bear the fruit of obedience. Originally the withering of the fig tree was a testimony against those Jews who rejected God's word and His Messiah. However, it is also a warning to all people, in all times, of the importance of not only hearing God's word, but putting it into action.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins is read on Holy Tuesday. It tells the story of the five virgins who filled their lamps in preparation for receiving the bridegroom while the other five allowed their lamps to go out, and hence were shut out of the marriage feast. This parable is a warning that we must always be prepared to receive our Lord when He comes again. The theme of the day is reinforced by the exoptelarion hymn we sing: "I see Thy Bridal Chamber adorned, O my Savior, but have no wedding garment that I may enter. O Giver of Light, enlighten the vesture of my soul, and save me." The theme of Holy Wednesday is repentance and forgiveness. We remember the sinful woman who anointed our Lord in anticipation of His death. Her repentance and love of Christ is the theme of the wonderful "Hymn of Kassiane" which is chanted on this night, reminding us one more time, before "it is too late," that we too may be forgiven if we repent.

Holy Unction: The Mystery or Sacrament of Holy Unction is celebrated on Holy Wednesday. Actually this service can be celebrated any time during the year, especially when one is ill. However, because of our need for forgiveness and spiritual healing, we offer this service during Holy Week for the remission of our sins. We should prepare for this service in a prayerful way, as we do for Holy Communion.

Great and Holy Thursday: On Holy Thursday we turn to the last events of our Lord and His Passion. Thursday morning begins with a Vespertal Divine Liturgy commemorating the Mystical Supper. As previously mentioned, this is actually Holy Thursday evening's service celebrated in the morning in anticipation. Everyone who is able should make an effort to receive Holy Communion at this service as it was at the Mystical Supper that our Lord instituted the Holy Eucharist. At this Liturgy a second Host is consecrated and kept in the Tabernacle. It is from this Host that Holy Communion is distributed to the shut-ins and the sick throughout the coming year.

Thursday evening actually begins the services of Great and Holy Friday. The service of the Twelve Passion Gospels commemorates the solemn time of our Lord's Crucifixion. After the reading of the fifth Gospel, the holy cross is carried around the church in procession, and Christ's body is nailed to the cross in the center of the church.

Great and Holy Friday: This is a day of strict fast. As little as possible should be eaten on this day. It is the only day in the entire year that no Divine Liturgy of any kind can be celebrated. In the morning we celebrate the Royal Hours. These solemn hours are observed as we read the various accounts and hymns concerning the crucifixion. In the afternoon we celebrate the Vesper service of the taking down of Christ's body from the cross. During the Gospel reading, our Lord's body is taken off the cross and wrapped in a new, white linen sheet. This act commemorates the removal of Christ's body from the cross by Joseph of Arimathea (John 19:38-42). Later in the service, the Epitaphios, or winding-sheet, with Christ's body on it is carried in procession and placed in the recently decorated tomb. In the evening the Lamentations service is sung. This service begins in a solemn manner, but by the end of the service we are already anticipating the Resurrection of our Lord. Remember again, that the Holy Friday evening Orthros is actually the first service of Holy Saturday, the day in which we commemorate our Lord's body resting in the tomb while His all-pure soul descends into Hades to free the faithful of the Old Covenant.

Great and Holy Saturday: This day is a day of hope and waiting. In the morning we celebrate a Vespertal Divine Liturgy which commemorates Christ's victory over death. Bright vestments are worn as we anticipate Christ's Resurrection. Laurel leaves are strewn throughout the church during the service, because in the ancient world laurel leaves were a sign of victory. As the leaves are strewn, the choir chants "Arise O God and Judge the earth, for to Thee belong all the nations." The Old Testament story of Jonah in the belly of the whale is read at this service because Jonah is seen in the Church as a Type of Christ. As Jonah was three days in the belly of the great fish, and was then safely deposited back onto land, so our Lord was three days in the tomb before His glorious Resurrection. The Vespertal Divine Liturgy of Holy Saturday concludes the services of Holy Week, and brings us to the eve of Great and Holy Pascha.

I hope that this brief explanation gives you a better understanding of what the services of Holy Week are about. These are the Lord's last days of His earthly ministry, His earthly life. Please come to church during these days and experience these precious days in our Lord's life. Please come to church and listen to Christ's powerful message in the Gospel. Please come to church and receive Christ through Holy Communion. Please be generous in your response to Christ's message.

May you have a Blessed Resurrection! Kali Anastasi!
With my paternal love in Christ Jesus,

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

I want to begin with a big thank you from all of us to Senator Maggie Hassan and her staff which has given us a brand new American flag. See it proudly blowing on our flag pole as it once flew on the Capitol of the United States. I told our Senator in my thank you to her that the flag, our flag, has always been a symbol of unity and togetherness and that we hope that she will continue her work to bring our state and country together with the flag as that glue. Many of our own people through many generations gave their service to see it proudly fly in front of our Cathedral and we thank them. Our own community continues to be factious and in this season of LENT let our prayers be for each other, to bring us together as one community, one body of CHRIST, one group of dedicated members of St. George all pulling for each other as we battle whatever obstacles we face those known or unknown in our future. Let our patron Saint George be our symbol, to remain strong and focused together.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I just mentioned it is Lent, half done as I write this and mostly done by the time you read this message, are you coming to church and taking advantage of the many services St. George is providing to help you with your fast, your repentance, your journey toward that most blessed time of our calendar Holy Week and Pascha.

I read an article in the Orthodox Observer on the invisible church. It told the story of how many think it is quite normal to do it on their own. No need for anything organized, anything with others, go pray or chat talk to God on some mountain top. It clearly pointed out the fallacy in that belief even as it grows in acceptance in our modern world. Our Lord wanted us together, in church together, praying with many voices for the same thing: to be with Him someday in heaven. Church, your church, is where it's happening, the choir voices, the sacraments offered, the icons to be venerated, the CROSS. We cannot do this alone. It is only together where we gain strength, the reinforcement of our own faith, together, let's all be together when I carry that most precious CROSS, around our cathedral in our procession demonstrating our faith in the life to come, together.

Have you purchased your Palm Sunday Fish Dinner tickets yet? It will be held on April 9th and tickets are going fast, again another thing to do with each other. See Diane LaRoche at coffee hour or call the church office, let's have a big turnout and start Holy Week off right.

Only a few weeks left for scholarship applications. Make sure you apply. Speaking of the high school students, our team at St. George once again won the State CYO Basketball Tournament. Great Job, to the players and the dedicated coaches for another chapter in the wonderful tradition of basketball at your community.

Glendi is off and running as we have sent out hundreds of letters and requests. If you receive one please open your heart up, we need all the help we can get to support the many programs we are providing. I would like to think we are moving in the proper direction but it takes money to accomplish our goals. Stewardship is off to a good start so keep your pledges coming or commit to one if need be, we need to have a firm financial footing and only you can help make that happen.

Look for the many announcements in this bulletin, the special services, the Name Day Dance, the multiple events here at St. George hope to see you soon, it's your church and you are invited.

See you at Divine Liturgy,
Frank C. Comerford-President

Dear St. George Parishioners,

Very soon the flowers will be blooming and the trees will be green again! I am looking forward to being outside with the kids. Spring is a time for renewal and rebirth. The Sunday School children have been learning about the great sacrifice Jesus Christ made for us. He was crucified for our salvation.

I hope you will join us on May 21st to celebrate the achievements of our Sunday school children! The Sunday School students have been very busy this year! Especially the past few weeks with Lent and Easter.

The Sunday School is still collecting personal care items. The items will be donated to the Salvation Army in Manchester. This is open to the entire St. George community. The items can be dropped off in Sunday school or in the drop off box in the lobby of the community center. With the community's help we can make this philanthropy project a huge success!

Sincerely,
Athena Moutsoulis Bevan

THE HISTORY OF EASTER EGGS

BY REV. FATHER NICON D. PATRINACOS

The egg as a symbol of new life goes back to primitive times and is found in all cultures and civilizations. Polynesian, Chinese, Japanese, Indians, Phoenicians, Greeks, Romans, and Europeans of the Middle Ages, all considered the egg in the nature of the primordial beginning of life. In Greek mythology, the "black-winged night" gave birth to an egg from which sprang Eros, the source of life. The Romans considered red eggs symbols of prosperity and happiness. Roman historians relate traditions by which the birthdays of notable Romans were marked by fowls laying red eggs. A Phoenician myth has Aphrodite being born from an egg, and a similar Greek myth has Helen being born from an egg that fell from the moon.

However, even though the Easter egg is obviously not an exclusive Christian introduction, its significance relates to the birth not of material life but to that spiritual experience enjoyed only in the life of Christ. Its symbolic adaptation to the events of Christ's sacrifice on the Cross, His entombment, and finally His breaking of the bondage of death by His Resurrection, all find a fitting expression to the Easter egg. The red color of the Orthodox Easter egg signifies the blood of Christ, its shell His three-day entombment, and it's breaking His Resurrection by which the "egg of life" brought forth a life, up to then unknown. The cracking of the red eggs among the Orthodox symbolizes a mutual wish for breaking one's bonds of sin and misery and for entering the new life issuing from Christ's Resurrection.

Easter eggs are common among all Christians but with differences in color. In recent years, and obviously for commercial reasons, artificial eggs are being made in sizes larger than that of the natural egg and mostly of chocolate usually stuffed with candies or other gifts. This obviously is a continuation of the European custom by which emperors and other rulers used to distribute after the Easter service gold-plated eggs filled with gifts to members of their cabinets.

The Orthodox custom of decorating the round Easter bread with red eggs at the four edges of the cross on the bread is a custom going back at least to the Twelfth Century. Easter eggs are traditionally dyed on the Thursday of the Holy Week and in some places a number of them are brought to church to be blessed at the Easter Liturgy. In the Orthodox Prayer Book there is a prayer for blessing Easter eggs.

EASTER FLOWER DONATIONS

If you would like to make a donation towards our Easter flowers you may do so by mailing a donation to the church office, drop it off at the church office, or give it to any member of the Anagennesis Board. Please make checks payable to Anagennesis Ladies Society. Thank you for your generosity.

DO YOU SPEAK OR READ FRENCH? GERMAN? ALBANIAN? CHINESE?

We need volunteers to help proclaim the Gospel on Pascha during the Agape Vespers Service on Sunday, April 16 in the many and various languages of the world. If you are blessed with these skills and are able to help, please contact Father as soon as possible. Thank you.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

. . . that the shortest Bible verse is John 11:35, quoted as 'Jesus Wept'. This verse will be heard in the Gospel read in the Divine Liturgy on the Saturday of Lazarus on Saturday, April 8, 2017. On this day the Gospel lesson is John 11:1-45. Jesus wept for His friend Lazarus, before He raised him from the dead, a pre-cursor of His own Resurrection.

Please join us after the Divine Liturgy for a Family Community Breakfast and help us fold the Palm Crosses for Palm Sunday the next day.

ADULT CLASSES SET TO RESUME

The Bible Study Class will continue meeting at 11:00 a.m. and is currently studying the Gospel of John. The Orthodox Life Class will continue to meet at 6:00 p.m. and is studying the History of the Orthodox Church.

Christ Is Risen! Truly He Is Risen!

Χριστος Ανεστη! Αληθως Ανεστη!

Orthodox Christians around the world celebrate Pascha and the Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Have you ever wondered how you would proclaim "Christ Is Risen" and the response "Truly He Is Risen" in the various languages of the world?

Albanian: Krishti Unjall! Vertet Unjall!

Arabic: Al Maseeh Qam! Haqqan Qam!

Armenian: Christos harjav i merelotz!
Orhniale harutjun Christosi!

Church Slavonic: Christos Voskrese! Voistino Voskrese!

Dutch: Christus is opgestaan! Ja, hij is waarlijk opgestaan!
French: Le Christ est ressuscite!
il est vraiment ressuscite!

German: Christus ist auferstanden!
Wahrhaft auferstanden!

Italian: Cristo e' Risorto! Veramente e' Risorto!

Latin: Christus Resurrectus Est! Vere Resurrectus Est!

Portuguese: Cristo Ressuscitou! Em Verdade Ressuscitou!

Romanian: Hristus A Inviat! Adeverat A Inviat!

Russian: Khristos Voskrese! Voistinu Voskrese!

Serbian: Hristos Vaskrese! Vaistinu Vaskrese!

Spanish: Cristo ha resucitado! En verdad, esta resucitado!

The Sermon of the Easter Lilies

In the beauty of the lilies,
we can see the Love of God.
They without a conscious effort,
rise supreme above the sod.
Clothed in tints of radiant glory,
fed by springs and from above.
Each a message of Creation,
each a symbol of His Love.

THE CHURCH IS WHERE WE FIND CHRIST

There is a legend about Zacchaeus the dishonest tax collector whom Jesus called down from a sycamore tree one day to have dinner with him. Zacchaeus, you recall, was converted as a result of this personal encounter with Jesus. In later years, the legend says, Zacchaeus used to rise early every morning, carry a bucket of water to this tree and carefully water its roots. On one occasion his wife followed him and when asked the reason for this strange concern over an old sycamore tree, Zacchaeus replied, "This is where I found Christ."

The Church is where we find Christ. This is where we are baptized. This is where we hear His word. This is where He comes to dwell in our hearts when we receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. This is why we love the Church. This is why we support the Church. This is why we work for the Church. It is the Body of Christ where we find love, compassion, forgiveness, peace and eternal salvation.

we take every day as members of the Anagennesis Society and as we grow and continue to better ourselves we are encouraged by you, our membership, and the feedback you offer us. Our general assembly meeting in March was
