A Special Thank You: I would like to thank the Apokreatiko Committee for helping with the Apokreatiko Celebration. Without your help it wouldn't have been the success that it was. A special thank you to John Stavropoulos and Mahi Nacos in the kitchen, John Nacos and Maria Dongas at the bar, Poppy Tsoutsas, Georgia Sousa, Maria Damalas, Sally Argeriou, and Marilyn Motowylak. A special thank goes out to Joyce in the office for all her hard work and Dan for everything he does for the dance.

With all my love and appreciation,

Toula Barber, Chairperson

Active Shooter Training will be Tuesday, March 13th at 6:30 pm in Community Center. Please Come and Learn.

Three Minutes.

- Once notified, Law Enforcement will respond to an Active Shooter as quickly as possible.
- Response time averages about three minutes.
- Your immediate actions should be focused on maximizing your personal safety until Law Enforcement is able to stop the threat.

What You Do Matters.

AVOID starts with your state of mind.

- Pay attention to your surroundings.
- Have an exit plan.
- Move away from the source of the threat as quickly as possible.
- The more distance and barriers between you and the threat, the better.

DENY when getting away is difficult or maybe even impossible.

- Keep distance between you and the source.
- Create barriers to prevent or slow down a threat from getting to you.
- Turn the lights off.
- Remain out of sight and quiet by hiding behind large objects and silencing your phone.

DEFEND because you have the right to protect yourself.

- If you cannot Avoid or Deny be prepared to defend yourself.
- Be aggressive and committed to your actions.
- Do not fight fairly. THIS IS ABOUT SURVIVAL.

CALL 911 when you are in a safe area. Inform the 911 operator that this is an active shooter situation.

When Law Enforcement arrives,
SHOW YOUR HANDS AND FOLLOW COMMANDS.

Mirofores

Dear Parents,

In preparation for Holy Week, girls from ages 4 to 13 are invited to be included as a mirofori participant on the following days:

Holy Thursday, April 5th @ 7:00 pm service, and in one or both of Good Friday, April 6th 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm services.

Please plan to meet us in the 2nd grade Sunday school classroom 30 minutes prior to start time of services.

The mirofores should be wearing an all white dress with shoulders covered, white tights or socks and white comfortable shoes.

No open slip on shoes for safety reasons please. The church will provide the girls with white gloves, a headpiece that's a comb and a white basket full of rose petals.

Please contact the church office 603-622-9113 to let us know which service you will be able to attend along with your child's name and age.

Wishing everyone a Kali Anastasi !

The Epistle Reading – Sunday, March 11, 2018

Save your people, O Lord, and bless your inheritance.
I will appeal to you, O Lord our God.

The reading is from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews (4:14-16 5:1-6).

Brethren, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not take the honor upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, "Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee"; as he says also in another place, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchizedek."

The Gospel Reading - Sunday, March 11, 2018

The Reading is from Mark 8:34-38; 9:1

The Lord said: "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? For what can a man give in return for his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of man also be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels." And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power."
